We are unable to reconcile a conflict in information furnished on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with figures reported on your 2021 Federal Income Tax Return. Your file will remain on hold until we have a clarification of the issue(s). We have indicated the item(s) selected for asset verification as well as the documents you need to submit below:

□ Student □ Spouse

□ You listed $______in cash/savings on the FAFSA. The interest/dividend income reported on your 2021 Federal Income Tax Return indicate your savings may be underreported.

□ You listed $______for other real estate/investment net worth on the FAFSA. The dividend, capital gains/loss, or supplemental income reported on your 2021 Federal Income Tax Return indicates your investment figure may be underreported.

Please review and send the following information to the Office of Financial Aid:
Schedule B of your 2021 Federal Income Tax Return, along with statements from banks or investment companies showing the balances of all accounts listed on the schedule. This information should be as of the date you filed the FAFSA .

Please review and send the following information to the Office of Financial Aid:
Schedule D of your 2021 Federal Income Tax Return, along with a signed explanation addressing the whereabouts of proceeds from sale(s) identified in column (d) of the schedule.

Please review and send the following information to the Office of Financial Aid:

Schedule E of your 2021 Federal Income Tax Return, along with documentation of fair market value of the property(s) listed on the schedule. This can include a recent appraisal, depreciation schedule, etc. Also, provide verification of debt, if applicable, on the property, ie: mortgage statement.
